ENTER THE BIGGEST-EVER PRITT CHRISTMAS CARD COMPETITION.

In this year's Pritt Christmas Card Competition there are over 400 prizes to be won.

Thirty fabulous bikes, twenty-five super Cassette Recorders, fifty boys and girls watches, a hundred terrific L.P. tokens and two hundred 'flying' Frisbees must be won.

All you have to do to enter, is send us a Christmas card.

The only thing is, you must make it yourself. You can make it any size or shape, with as many cut-outs as you like. And you can decorate it with whatever you want: tinsel, wool, coloured paper, leaves, drawings, or pictures cut from magazines and comics.

There are two classes (under 11's and 11-14's), so everybody stands an equal chance.

But remember, the card has to be stuck together with a Pritt stick – the cleanest sticky stuff there is – and nothing else.

When you've finished, fill in the entry form and stick it to the back of your Christmas card. Then pop everything in an envelope, mark your age on the outside, and post it to us at the address below before 20 December 1976.

RULES

1. This competition is open to everyone aged 14 and under excluding only the families of employees of Henkel Chemicals Limited, associated companies, their agents and anybody connected in any way with the running of the competition.
2. All valid entries will be examined and prizes awarded to those entries which in the opinion of the judges show the most flair and imagination. (Age will be taken into account.)
3. No glue or adhesive other than Pritt may be used when making your Christmas card, otherwise your entry will be disqualified.
4. Entries must be posted before 20 December 1976. No responsibility can be accepted for entries delayed, lost or damaged in the post.
5. Winners will be notified by 31 January 1977 and prizes awarded as soon as possible after that date.
6. A list of competition winners will be available upon request. Send a stamped addressed envelope to Henkel Chemicals Ltd, Dept 'W,' Pritt Christmas Card Competition, Road 5, Industrial Estate, Winsford, Cheshire CW7 3QY.
7. Instructions on how to enter are also rules and entry implies acceptance of them.
8. Entries become the property of Henkel Chemicals Limited.

* Illustrations shown are only artist's impressions of the actual prizes.

THE GERMANS THOUGHT THEY'D FOUND THE SUPREME AERIAL WEAPON.

The spectacular success, enjoyed by the JU 87 Stuka in the opening campaigns of the Second World War, made the German Air Staff believe that they possessed an invincible aerial weapon.

In these early campaigns, troops were demoralised by the JU 87's powerful dive; pockets of resistance were crushed from the air; armoured formations were blasted with incredible accuracy. And refugees came to dread its ominous approaching scream.

Then, heady with success gained in the Polish and French campaigns, during which aerial opposition had been minimal, the Stuka units entered the Battle of Britain.

And met defeat.

But in it's short operational career, this ugly dive bomber gained an almost legendary reputation, as a symbol of terror and destruction.

The new Airfix model provides full detail throughout, from the two crew positions to the miniature Junkers Jumo engine with its detachable panels.

Sliding cockpit panels, a unique working ball-mount for the rear machine-gun, a hinging bomb cradle and movable control surfaces are all features of this remarkable kit. Two sets of authentic decals are provided, one for an aircraft flown during the Battle of Britain and the other for a tropicalised JU 87B operated in North Africa.

Dear Editor,

I have been living in South Africa for two years now. I get my comics from my cousins, who send them over to me. Here is a picture of me, and my twin sister, Tracy.

KAREN COOPER, Durban, South Africa.

My secretary, Pauline, flies to South Africa for a holiday soon. No doubt she'll come back very brown from the sun, whereas I'll be very green . . . with envy . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I am ten years old and my hobby is Morris dancing. I have won two medals, and I hope to win some more in the future.

Dear Editor,

I would like to tell you about the sale we had a few months ago in aid of the St. Margaret's Adoption Society. One day we had a cake and candy sale, and the following day we had a toy sale. My teacher, Mrs. Watters, asked us to try to bring in old toys, comics and books. I took some old copies of WHOOPEE!, which were snapped up very quickly. Over the two days we made a grand total of £74.

JANET TALLAN, Hamilton.

Great stuff, Janet. No wonder you can afford to smile. Judging by the many letters we receive on the subject, there are many WHOOPEE! readers doing their bit to help various charities. Keep up the good work, kids . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I am a member of an organisation called Toch H. Recently they went on a walk from the East coast of England to the West coast. I was allowed to join in for part of the journey, and walked 52 miles, which earned £22 for charity. Altogether we made £1,400.

JOHN LOWES, Newcastle-le-willows.

Dear Editor,

WHOOPEE! makes my sides ache. If that sounds funny, let me explain. The stories in it are so funny, I laugh and laugh, and in the end I laugh so much my sides begin to ache. But I don't mind. It's well worth it. Here's a photograph of me taken while I was in Blackpool.

MARK LOVE, Stenhousemuir.

P.S. I forgot to tell you the hand belongs to my friend.

Dear Editor,

My family were all sitting round the table finishing off a meal when my sister suddenly stood up and started to walk away. "Hold on," my dad said, "what should you say?" "Oh, sorry," she said. "May I leave the table, please?" At that my little brother butted in and said: "Well, she can hardly take it with her, daddy, can she?"

WENDY BECKET, West Bromwich.

Dear Editor,

My hobbies are gymnastics, trampolining and tennis. I've been doing gymnastics for 3 years and trampolining for 18 months. I've only just started playing tennis. I have 4 awards for gymnastics, 2 for trampolining, but none for tennis. I recently entered the Worthing Championships and came third out of thirty entrants in the trampolining, and received a bronze medal.

MARIA WALKER, Shoreham by Sea.

Life does have its ups and downs, Maria. Especially trampolining . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

For six weeks now, I've not been bored,
The reason is really quite plain.
I picked WHOOPEE! from my magazine stall,
And since then, I've bought it again.

I wish I'd discovered it sooner,
But one thing I'll tell you for sure.
I'll not miss a copy in future,
'Cos it's ordered, and brought to my door!

JOANNE ROBINSON, St. Austell.

It's nice to hear, Joanne,
From readers such as you,
Who order WHOOPEE! every week,
It's the sensible thing to do.
I do like letters in verse,
I print them all the time.
But you should see the effort involved,
To make my answers rhyme.
. . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I recently wrote to a newspaper to tell them all about my holiday in India, and was given a reward for doing so. To get to India we travelled on numerous local buses right across Europe and Asia. It took 21 days to get there, but the experience was well worth it.

SAM BOOTH, Castle Douglas.

I think my local bus must make a detour to India, judging by the time I have to wait for it sometimes . . . Editor.
